Narrable lets students import their photos and images into an online setting to create a digital photo story. Students then have the ability to narrate each photo to add information, a personal message or a reflection based on that particular image!

Once completed, students can email and share their creations online and with friends, teachers and family members. Like all Web-based Tools, it is only limited by your imagination!